

THE CIVILIZING PROCESS IN COLOMBIA
The Old Library, Brasenose College, Oxford, 3-4 May 2019 Programme

Friday, 3 May: The Old Library, Brasenose

9.45 am Introductory Remarks

Eduardo Posada-Carbó, LAC/ Brasenose

10.00 am Inaugural Lecture

Some Reflections on the Colombians after Reading Norbert Elias on The Germans

Malcolm Deas, LAC/ St Antony's

11.00 am – 12.30 pm

Republican Manners: Political Catechisms and Conduct Manuals in Mid-Nineteenth-Century Colombia

Ana Maria Otero, Universidad de los Andes

Sports and the Civilizing Process in Colombia

Matthew Brown, University of Bristol

12.45 Lunch – the Medieval Kitchen

Afternoon free

5.00 pm Public Seminar – Main Seminar Room, Latin American Centre

Civilization with Barbarism: The Colombians in La Violencia"

Herbert Braun, University of Virginia

Saturday, 4 May: The Old Library, Brasenose

9.00-10.30 am

Peace Arrangements after Civil Wars and the Civilizing Process in 19th-Century Colombia

Margarita Garrido, Universidad del Externado, Colombia

The Generación del Centenario and the Civilizing Process in Colombia, 1910-1946

Eduardo Posada-Carbo, LAC/ Brasenose

10.30 Coffee

11.00 am- 12.30 pm

Civilizing and De-civilizing Processes: the Case of Medellín 1960-2015

Jorge Giraldo, Eafit University

Decivilizing Processes in the Borders: How Colombian's Frontiers Challenge its Centre

Annette Idler, DPIP/ Pembroke

12.30 Lunch – the Medieval Kitchen, Brasenose College

2.15 pm- 3.45 pm

Interpersonal Violence and the Civilizing Process in Colombia, 1600s-2000s

Victor Uribe-Urán, Florida International University, USA

The Emergence of the Police in the Civilizing Process: the Cases of Colombia & Mexico, 1800-2000s

Carlos Perez Ricart, LAC/History/St Antony's

3.45 coffee break?

4.15 pm

From Conquest to Republic: Power, Law and Civilization: An Overview

Jorge Orlando Melo, Universidad Jorge Tadeo Lozano

5.15 pm Concluding Remarks

Andrew Linklater, Aberystwyth University