

Oxford Latin American Graduate Network Term Card, Trinity Term 2024

Thursday 2nd May, 3-4 PM, Latin American Centre, 1 Church Walk

Seminar Session: *Enduring Flows across Transit Spaces:
Cocaine Trafficking in Contemporary Honduras*

Speaker: Emilia Ziosi (Postdoc, University of Oxford)

Discussant: Sam Woolfson (InSight Crime journalist)

Wednesday 15th May, 7-9 PM, Trinity College, The de Jager Auditorium

Film screening: Yawar Mallku (1969)

With commentary from: Anneli Aliaga (DPhil candidate, University of Oxford)

Tuesday 28th May, 1:30-2:30 PM, TORCH Radcliffe Humanities, Meeting Room

Reading Group on Margins and the Environment
In preparation for the conference that will take place in Oxford, June 17-18, 2024.

Thursday 13th June, 3-4 PM, Latin American Centre, 1 Church Walk

Seminar Session: “Disgust, dissolution, and the transcendence of the female body in Clarice Lispector’s novel The Passion According to G.H.”

Speaker: Sabine Erbrich (DPhil candidate, Freie Universität Berlin / University of Oxford)

Discussant: Professor Claire Williams (University of Oxford)

Monday 17th-Tuesday 18th June 2024, Radcliffe Humanities, Woodstock Road

OLAGN Graduate Conference:
Margins in Latin American Studies

All interested students and researchers are invited to attend the Conference.
Detailed information on the programme and activities will be available on our webpage. Please contact our conference office if you need further information, to confirm your participation or to request the Zoom link to follow the conference online: olagnconference2024@gmail.com.